Dear Translator,

There are 2 records for processing (each record starts with green titled banner).

Items marked “New” have no previous text and should be translated.

Items marked “Update” have edits in the original text which should be translated / aligned.

Items marked “Previous” are the previous original text, to allow easy scanning of the user edits.

Items marked “Review” have no edits in the original text, but should be reviewed following indications in the “Reason” of the record header.

Items marked “Info” are only intended for background information, any translation edits will be saved though.

Many thanks,
OAC Business Management Team

No one rejects, dislikes, or avoids pleasure itself, because it is pleasure, but because those who do not know how to pursue pleasure rationally encounter consequences that are extremely painful. Nor again is there anyone who loves or pursues or desires to obtain pain of itself, because it is pain, but because occasionally circumstances occur in	Review

To take a trivial example, which of us ever undertakes laborious physical exercise, except to obtain some advantage from it? But who has any right to find fault with a man who chooses to enjoy a pleasure that has no annoying consequences, or one who avoids a pain that produces no resultant pleasure?

These cases are perfectly simple and easy to distinguish. In a free hour, when our power of choice is untrammelled and when nothing prevents our being able to do what we like best, every pleasure is to be welcomed and every pain avoided. But in certain circumstances and owing to the claims of duty or	Info
