EMPHASIZING the need for African customs administrations to reform and modernize continuously to meet the expectations of Governments, businesses and citizens but also to face the challenges of a rapidly changing environment;

ACKNOWLEDGING the commitment of both Parties to cooperate in supporting the African customs administrations that demonstrate leadership and ownership of reform and modernization, in particular by providing expertise for the implementation of international standards and best practices and for sustainable capacity building and organizational development, that lead to efficiency in customs, transit and trade facilitation;

AGREE ON THE FOLLOWING:

ARTICLE 1 - Objective

The aim of this MoU is to sustainably strengthen the organizational capacity, transparency and effectiveness of African customs administrations through cooperation between the Parties, in particular in the areas defined in Article 2.
ARTICLE 2 – Areas and scope of cooperation

2.1. The Parties cooperate and resolutely support the modernization of African customs administrations, in particular through the promotion and implementation of the WCO's international standards, tools and best practices.

2.2. In a more specific way, cooperation between the Parties may include:

(a) The Governance and management of the AfCFTA initiatives on rules of origin, customs, transit and trade facilitation, e.g.:
   - Stakeholder analysis and engagement;
   - Establishment and operationalization of a governance framework and decision making process;
   - Analysis, planning, implementation-monitoring and evaluation;
   - Development and implementation of a promotion and communication concept; and
   - Resource mobilization and donor coordination towards capacity building.

(b) Guidance, capacity building, organizational development and training for the implementation of the AfCFTA-Agreement Annexes, in particular the following:
   - Annex 2: Rules of origin;
   - Annex 3: Customs cooperation and mutual administrative assistance;
   - Annex 4: Trade facilitation;
   - Annex 5: Non-Tariff barriers; and
   - Annex 8: Transit.

2.3. By mutual agreement, collaboration may be extended to any other subject that may be of interest to either Party.

ARTICLE 3 – Cooperation and coordination mechanisms

The Parties are committed to putting in place the following mechanisms to ensure effective and successful cooperation and coordination under this MoU:

(a) They designate points of contact at the level of the AfCFTA Secretariat and the WCO Secretariat who will facilitate active and regular communication between the two organizations;

(b) They inform each other regularly about relevant activities and programmes in furtherance of the objectives of this MoU;

(c) Whenever useful and possible, they invite each other to participate in meetings whose themes are related to this MoU;

(d) They bring to the attention of the other Party any relevant documentation;

(e) They consult each other if the decisions they make impact the other Party;
Together, they assess the results of joint initiatives and activities.

ARTICLE 5 – Legal Provisions Relating to Implementation

Notwithstanding anything in this MoU to the contrary, (a) this MOU constitutes an expression of intent only and not a legally binding document; and (b) nothing herein shall be construed as creating a legally binding commitment.

ARTICLE 6 – Monitoring and Review

The Parties shall annually review progress of work in the priority areas of cooperation and discuss policy, technical and operational issues related to furthering the objectives of the cooperation. The results of this review shall form the decision of the Parties on the continuity of collaborative projects as well as determine the strategic benefits brought about by the cooperation to the overall aspirations and programmes of each of the Parties.

ARTICLE 7 – Use of name, emblem, tagline

Neither Party will use the name, emblem, tagline or trademarks of the other Party, or any of its subsidiaries, and/or affiliates, or any abbreviation thereof, without the express prior written approval of the other Party in each case. In no event will an authorization to use a Party name, emblem, tagline or any abbreviation thereof, be granted for commercial purposes, without the express authorization of the Party concerned.
ARTICLE 8 – Data protection, confidentiality and Publications

8.1. The Parties undertake to protect the personal data exchanged under this MoU and not to make it accessible to third parties without prior and explicit agreement from the other Party.

8.2. The Parties also undertake to respect the confidentiality rules formulated by the other Party in the exchange of relevant information and documents.

8.3. The ownership of any intellectual property owned by either party prior to the commencement of any specific cooperation or exchange shall be and remain vested with that Party. The Parties agree that the intellectual property of publications developed jointly within the framework of this MoU will be equally owned by the Parties.

ARTICLE 9 – Financial obligations

Notwithstanding any other provision of this MoU, nothing in this MoU can be considered to create financial obligations for either Party, unless that obligation is mutually and expressly accepted in writing.

ARTICLE 10 – Dispute resolution

Any dispute over the interpretation or application of this MoU will be resolved by consultation between the Parties.

ARTICLE 11 – Languages

As part of this MoU, the Parties undertake to communicate exclusively in English or French.

ARTICLE 12 – Privileges and immunities

Nothing in or relating to the present MoU shall be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any of the privileges and immunities of the Parties or those of their officials.

ARTICLE 13 – Entry into force, validity, amendment and termination

13.1. This MoU comes into effect on the date it was signed by the Party that last signed it, and will be valid for a period of three (3) years. Renewal may be requested by either Party six (6) months before the end of the term.

13.2. This MoU may be amended by written agreement of both Parties. For any amendment, the procedures in place at the Parties for the negotiation of MoUs will have to be respected.
13.3. Either Party may terminate this MoU by giving thirty (30) calendar days’ written notice to the other Party.

Done in Brussels, Belgium, in English, in two copies, on the 15th day of February 2022, which will be deposited with the Secretary General of the WCO and the Secretary General of the AfCFTA Secretariat.
