Seventh Global Congress on Combating Counterfeiting and Piracy

Evolving Challenges - Innovative Responses

Held under the High Auspices of H.E. Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdoğan

The Global Congress on Combating Counterfeiting and Piracy, which will take place in Istanbul from 24 to 26 April 2013, is organized by the World Customs Organization (WCO), the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and INTERPOL, in partnership with the International Trademark Association (INTA) and the International Chamber of Commerce / Business Action to Stop Counterfeiting and Piracy (ICC/BASCAP).

Turkish Customs, supported by the Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Turkey (TOBB), is graciously hosting the seventh Global Congress.

This high-level event attracts over 1,000 participants from government ministers and policy makers, to business leaders, senior civil servants and law enforcement officers, as well as judges and lawyers, consumer groups and members of academia, including senior security and anti-counterfeiting decision-makers, brand owners, trademark counsel and specialist investigators, as well as representatives from intergovernmental organizations (IGOs) and nongovernmental organizations (NGOs).

Key speakers include: Dr. Kunio Mikuriya, Secretary General of the WCO, Dr. Francis Gurry, Director General of WIPO, Mr. Ronald K. Noble, Secretary General of INTERPOL, Ms. Toe Su Aung, 2013 President of INTA and Ms. Shelley Duggan, Co-Chair of ICC/BASCAP.

Turkey will be represented by Mr. Ömer Çelik, Minister of Culture and Tourism, and Mr. Hayati Yazıcı, Minister of Customs and Trade, as well as senior government officials and high-level industry delegates.

The Seventh Global Congress builds on the successes of past Congresses. An array of top-notch moderators and speakers will address the theme: “Evolving Challenges – Innovative Responses” in a number of key sessions covering a variety of issues that impact on the fight against counterfeiting and piracy and efforts to promote respect for IP.
