

COMMUNICATION FROM THE UNITED STATES

The following communication, dated 18 May 2007, is being circulated at the request of the Delegation of the United States.

DRAFT TEXT ON INTERNET PUBLICATION

1. In a previous communication (TN/TF/W/13; 1 February 2005) the United States submitted a proposal on "transparency and publication". Subsequently, Chile, Peru and the United States submitted a communication setting forth "elements of a commitment on internet publication" (TN/TF/W/89; 4 April 2006). In light of more recent discussions in the Negotiating Group, the United States now submits the following draft text for its consideration.

Textual Proposal:

Internet Publication

Each Member shall make available and keep current, on a publicly accessible Internet website:

- (a) a full and precise description of its customs procedures, including procedures for the appeal of customs determinations; and
 - (b) the forms and documents required for importation into or exportation from the territory of that Member.
