1. INTRODUCTION

The World Customs Organization (WCO) is an independent intergovernmental organization, established in 1952 as the Customs Co-operation Council (CCC), whose mission is to improve the effectiveness of customs administrations worldwide. The WCO represents 186 Customs administrations, which together handle about 98% of world trade. As a global center of customs expertise, the WCO is the only international organization with competence in customs matters.

As a forum for dialogue and exchange of experience between delegates from national Customs administrations, the WCO offers its Members a wide range of conventions and other international instruments, as well as technical assistance and training provided directly by, or in cooperation with, the Secretariat. The Secretariat also actively supports its Members in their efforts to modernize and build capacity within their Customs administrations.

The Publications & Data Solutions department is responsible for the multi-channel production, distribution and worldwide sale of WCO standards and procedures.
