Preference will be given to applicants with sound experience in writing research papers and analysis, such as those who hold a Master or Ph.D. degree

Applicants will be evaluated based on their academic record and intellectual distinction, personal qualities, motivation, evidence of leadership, management potential and career growth, and work experience. The applicant's engagement in WCO programmes and activities will be taken into consideration as well.

V. Main tasks and responsibilities(a) Assist and support WCO activities:

¹ The WCO working languages are English and French, however, main activities of the Programme, including the field study trip to Japan, are conducted exclusively in English.

Professional Associates will assist and support the tasks and projects of the Secretariat, primarily in the Directorate to which they are assigned. In addition, Professional Associates will be expected to provide support for linguistic matters.

(b) Research and study project:

Professional Associates are expected to undertake research on a theme set by the WCO or by the Professional Associate himself/herself in cooperation with a tutor from a designated Directorate and under the supervision of the Office of the Secretary General (External Relations Officer). The tutor will be designated in accordance with the research topic. The Professional Associates shall submit the outcome of the research project to the Office of the Secretary General before the end of the Programme.

(c) Field study trip:

The field study trip is an essential part of the Programme, which enables Professional Associates to conduct and enhance their research project. Financial support will be granted for a visit to the donor country (Japan). Support may also be granted for a mission to another country. The cost of travel (economy class ticket), accommodation and meals will be covered by the sponsor.
