

Fiji

ARTICLE 2: OPPORTUNITY TO COMMENT, INFORMATION BEFORE ENTRY INTO FORCE, AND CONSULTATIONS

For the Customs Tariff and Policy matters which are sensitive are not discussed with the stakeholders, they are notified once the bill is enacted at the Cabinet.

Then the Public Circulars and Customs tariff are placed on the Fiji Revenue and Customs Service (FRCS) website as well as emailed to the Customs Brokers for their information.

The process changes are consulted with the stakeholders for their comments prior to implementation and their positive comments are taking into consideration