

Saudi Arabia

ARTICLE 7: RELEASE AND CLEARANCE OF GOODS

The "clearance within two hours" initiative was decided to expand in accordance with the Authority expand the implementation of initiative and coordinate with the relevant authorities, each within its own jurisdiction, taking into account the competencies of each authority and the nature of its missions.

The initiative after extending its application to the concerned government agencies to send the response to release the goods, or not, or request manual inspection, provide more documentation, or indicate the need for time to study the request, or any other procedure, within two hours from the time of receiving the request by technical connection after the commercial establishment fulfills all the requirements and submits the consignment data electronically.